Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

For the past several years, Voyager Entertainment International, Inc. (the "Company") has extensively planned and/or evaluated the available locations on the Las Vegas Strip as well as other off-strip locations in Las Vegas, Nevada for the construction of the L.V. Voyager Project - an Observation Ferris Wheel.

On April 18, 2011, the Company entered into a purchase and sale agreement with an unrelated party to purchase real estate for the construction of the L.V. Voyager Project. As a requirement the company delivered a cash deposit to execute the purchase and sale agreement. The purchase price of the property is $30,000,000 payable by cash and Preferred "Series C" stock. The company has six months to complete the purchase of the land with an option of one six month extension.

The land encompasses approximately 4.89 acres in two parcels. The observation wheel will occupy a footprint of approximately 2.37 acres. The additional acreage will be used for roads and parking within the master plan. The property is located on Dean Martin Drive between Flamingo and Harmon, north of Panorama Towers and adjacent to the Bellagio and MGM City Center.

The L.V. Voyager Project the V3-A is intended to be designed as a visual icon and experience overlooking the "Las Vegas Strip". With 30 vehicles called orbitors, the Voyager V3-A Project is intended to be a revolving observation wheel that will overlook the Las Vegas Strip as it revolves higher than a 60-story building at approximately 600 feet. One rotation in an Orbitor will last approximately 27 minutes. An on-board Navigator, part entertainer, part steward and skilled in life- safety and security, will control each Orbitor.

(a) The Parties agree that Purchaser shall have the right to review certain matters affecting the Property (collectively referred to as the "Due Diligence Conditions") as described in Paragraphs 4(a)(i) through 4(a)(v) below. This period of review shall be referred to in this Agreement as the "Due Diligence Period." The Due Diligence Period shall commence as of the date of this Agreement and continue thereafter for a period of forty five (45) days. During such Due Diligence Period, Purchaser, at its sole expense, shall have the right to examine and review the following Due Diligence Conditions:

(i) Purchaser may obtain, at its expense, a current and accurate ALTA survey ("ALTA Survey") of the Property prepared and certified by a registered land surveyor, unless a recent survey exists, (within 90 days). If such Survey discloses any matters that, in the absolute discretion of Purchaser, render the Property not suitable for purchase, and Purchaser notifies Seller that Purchaser has determined such matters to be "Objectionable Conditions" (as defined in Paragraph 4(b) below), then Seller may elect to, but shall not be obligated to, cure such Objectionable Conditions as provided in Paragraph 4(c), or Purchaser may exercise any of the remedies provided in Paragraph 4(d).

(ii) Seller shall deliver to Purchaser a current commitment for title insurance (on an ALTA form), issued by the _____ ("Escrow Agent") which shows marketable fee simple title to the Property in Seller, free and clear of all liens (other than such liens which will be removed by Seller prior to Close of Escrow), assessments, charges, claims, actions, encumbrances, easements, rights-of-way, restrictions, and title exceptions of any kind, except real estate taxes not yet delinquent, pursuant to which the Escrow Agent commits to issue its ownership title insurance policy in favor of Purchaser in the amount of the Purchase Price (the "Title Policy"). If such title commitment discloses any matters that, in the absolute discretion of Purchaser, render the Property not suitable for purchase, and Purchaser notifies Seller that Purchaser has determined such matters to be Objectionable Conditions, then Seller may cure such Objectionable Conditions as provided in Paragraph 4(c), or Purchaser may exercise any of the remedies provided in Paragraph 4(d). Any exceptions or other matters listed on the title commitment to which Purchaser does not object, identify or list in the Objectionable Conditions shall be deemed "Permitted Exceptions."

(iii) Seller agrees to provide to Purchaser, at no expense to Purchaser, within five days following the Effective Date, any and all engineering studies, zoning information, soil investigations and reports, water and sewer studies, topographical maps, platting and all other materials and documents concerning the Property owned by Seller or in Seller's possession.

(iv) Purchaser shall review, at its expense, all necessary licenses, permits, approvals and zoning with respect to or affecting the Property. If such review discloses any matters that, in the absolute discretion of Purchaser, render the Property not suitable for purchase, Purchaser may terminate this Agreement without liability except as set forth in Section 5 by delivering written notice of such termination to Seller on or before the expiration of the Due Diligence Period.

(b) With respect to each of the Due Diligence Conditions set forth in Paragraphs 4(a)(i) through 4(a)(iv) above, Purchaser shall deliver written notice to Seller on or before the expiration of the Due Diligence Period as to whether (i) such Due Diligence Condition is satisfied and accepted by Purchaser (an "Accepted Due Diligence Condition"), or (ii) such Due Diligence Condition is not satisfied and not accepted by Purchaser. If Purchaser does not accept any one or more of the Due Diligence Conditions, then Purchaser shall deliver written notice to Seller on or before the expiration of the Due Diligence Period of any such Due Diligence Conditions determined by Purchaser to be objectionable conditions (the "Objectionable Conditions").

(c) Seller shall have the right, but not the obligation, to cure any Objectionable Conditions. Seller may exercise such right by delivering written notice to Purchaser within five (5) days after receipt of the notice of an Objectionable Condition pursuant to Paragraph 4(b) above. If Seller elects to cure such Objectionable Condition, then Seller shall do so in good faith and with reasonable diligence. Seller shall promptly notify Purchaser when Seller has successfully cured the Objectionable Condition. Within five (5) days after receipt of such notice from Seller, Purchaser shall either accept the Due Diligence Condition as an Accepted Due Diligence Condition or continue its objection to the condition if it, in the absolute discretion of Purchaser, continues to render the Property not suitable for purchase. If Purchaser continues its objection, then Purchaser may elect to terminate this Agreement as provided in Paragraph 4(d) below, or Purchaser may allow Seller to continue its attempt to cure the condition as provided in this Paragraph 4(c).

(d) If Seller fails to deliver notice to Purchaser that it will cure the Objectionable Condition, or if Seller has failed to cure the Objectionable Condition as determined by Purchaser as provided in Paragraph 4(c) above, then Purchaser may either (i) waive the Objectionable Condition and continue to purchase the Property pursuant to this Agreement, or (ii) terminate this Agreement without liability by delivering written notice of such termination to Seller. If Purchaser waives the Objectionable Condition, then the condition shall become an Accepted Due Diligence Condition. If Purchaser elects to terminate this Agreement, then this Agreement shall thereupon terminate and be of no further force or effect

(e) In the event Purchaser disapproves or finds unacceptable, in Purchaser's sole and absolute discretion, any matters reviewed by Purchaser during the Due Diligence Period pursuant to this Section 4 hereof, Purchaser may elect to terminate this Agreement pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 hereof and the Cash Deposit required hereunder shall be returned to Purchaser.

5. Entry Prior to Closing. Purchaser and its employees, agents, and consultants will have the right, to enter upon the Property to inspect, examine, survey, perform physical and environmental tests, and otherwise do whatever Purchaser deems necessary or appropriate to investigate any matter which Purchaser deems appropriate in order to evaluate the Property. Seller shall reasonably cooperate with Purchaser in conducting the foregoing activities. Prior to entry upon the Property for purposes of conducting physical testing of the improvements or test drilling on the Property as may permitted under this Section 5, Purchaser shall have procured general liability insurance in an amount of at least Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per occurrence and insuring Seller as an additional insured, all of which shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Seller. Purchaser shall not cause or permit any mechanic's liens, materialmen's liens, or other liens to be filed against the Property as a result of the inspections. Purchaser shall promptly repair and restore any damage to the Property caused by entry upon the Property by Purchaser. Purchaser shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Seller and Seller's officers, directors, shareholders, customers, invitees, members, partners, tenants, agents, and employees (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties"), from and against any and all actions, losses, costs, damages, claims, liabilities, and expenses (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) brought, sought, or incurred by or against any of the Indemnified Parties to the extent caused by the activities of Purchaser or its representatives as permitted hereunder while on the Property. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary recited herein, the foregoing indemnification and repair and restoration obligations (collectively, "Purchaser's Indemnity") shall expressly survive Closing or earlier termination of this Agreement for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter.

9. Seller Covenants. Seller hereby covenants and agrees with Purchaser:

(a) To furnish Purchaser with true and correct copies of any instruments or documents in Seller's possession, whether of record or not, which affect or which reasonably relate to the Property or the ability of Purchaser to utilize the Property, within seven (7) days from the date of this Agreement, including, without limitation, engineering and geological studies;

(b) Until Closing, to maintain the Property (in Seller's possession) in its current condition subject to normal wear and tear;

(d) To execute such documents and instruments as reasonably requested by the Escrow Agent sufficient for the Escrow Agent to issue the Title Policy.

10. Coordination with Master Plan and Future Development. The Property is subject to that master plan known as the Cityview/Desert Express Approved Master Plan which was approved by Clark County, Nevada (the "Master Plan"), a copy of which has been provided to Purchaser. To best coordinate the development of the overall site subject to the Master Plan, the Parties agree to the following:

(a) The proposed Observation Wheel is not a permitted use under the Master Plan, and Purchaser will be required to obtain a special use permit from Clark County to commence construction on the Observation Wheel. Purchaser agrees that while it is purchasing approximately 4.89 acres from Seller, it will limit the construction of the Observation Wheel to a building envelope of approximately 2.37 acres as depicted on Exhibit B attached hereto (the "Observation Wheel Site").

(b) Future development under the Master Plan will require roads, public rights-of-way and other infrastructure to be completed on portions of the Property which are not located within the Observation Wheel Site (the "Excess Property"). At the time of such development, Purchaser will transfer the Excess Property to Seller or its designee in exchange for the rights to utilize parking spaces within the Master Plan property in an amount equivalent to the number of parking spaces as existed on the Excess Property on the date of such transfer.

(c) The full development of the Master Plan will require cross easements, rules and regulations, use restrictions and certain other agreements between the property owners subject to Master Plan. These agreements may be reflected in various documents, including a comprehensive set of Covenant, Conditions and Restrictions for the development. Purchaser and Seller shall mutually agree to any such documents provided that such documents do not materially impact Purchaser's ability to construct and operate the Observation Wheel.

(d) The understanding of the Parties provided in this Section 10 shall survive Closing and will be set forth in further detail through a separate and potentially multiple agreements to be executed upon Closing. Seller, in its discretion, may elect to record any such agreement against the Property at the time of Closing.

11. Closing.

(a) Provided that all conditions of the Parties respective obligations hereunder have been satisfied, and unless Purchaser has exercised any of its rights to terminate this Agreement, the closing of the purchase and sale of the Primary Parcel (the "Primary Parcel Closing") shall take place on _____, 2011 [six months from the Effective Date] ("Primary Parcel Closing Date"), at the offices of the Escrow Agent, or at such time and such place as otherwise mutually agreed upon by the Parties. Purchaser shall be entitled to one six month extension of the Primary Parcel Closing Date, provided that no less than 15 days prior to the Primary Parcel Closing Date, Purchaser (i) delivers written notice of such extension to Seller, (ii) issues 1,250,000 shares of Preferred "Series C" Stock in Purchaser to Stashick Asset Management, which shall have a minimum value of $50,000 at the time of transfer, and (iii) issues 2,500,000 shares of Preferred "Series C" Stock in Purchaser to Seller, which shall have a minimum value of $100,000 at the time of transfer. Seller shall have right to cause a third party review of stock purchase to confirm that proper stock is being transferred.

(b) Provided that all conditions of the Parties respective obligations hereunder have been satisfied, and unless Purchaser has exercised any of its rights to terminate this Agreement, the closing of the purchase and sale of the Secondary Parcel (the "Secondary Parcel Closing") shall take place at the offices of the Escrow Agent upon the earlier of (i) one year from the Effective Date or (ii) ten business days following the issuance of debt necessary for Purchaser to purchase the Secondary Parcel ("Secondary Parcel Closing Date"), or at such time and such place as otherwise mutually agreed upon by the Parties.

(c) The term "Closing" or "Closing Date" may be used in this Agreement to refer to the Primary Parcel Closing or Secondary Parcel Closing and the Primary Parcel Closing Date or Secondary Parcel Closing Date as shall be appropriately applicable.

12. Deliveries at Closing. At the Closing:

(a) Seller shall execute, acknowledge and/or deliver to the Escrow Agent and/or Purchaser, at Seller's cost and expense:

(i) Seller's executed Grant, Bargain and Sale Deed ("Deed"), conveying the Property to Purchaser, duly acknowledged and in form for recording, which Deed shall convey to Purchaser, good and marketable title to the Property, free and clear of all liens, assessments, charges, claims, actions, encumbrances, easements, rights-of-way, restrictions, and title exceptions except Permitted Exceptions and real estate taxes not yet delinquent;

(ii) An affidavit, under penalty of perjury, stating that Seller is not a "foreign person" as defined in Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder, and stating Seller's United States Taxpayer Identification Number;

(iii) A State of Nevada Declaration of Value which shall list the Purchase Price as the fair market value of the Property;

(iv) Such documents or instruments required to transfer and assign to Purchaser all of the Seller's right, title and interest in and to the Property otherwise reasonably necessary to be executed or delivered for consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or to satisfy Seller's obligations hereunder.

(v) In the event Purchaser elects to assume any of the leases affecting the Property, Seller shall execute an Assignment and Assumption of Leases.

(vi) Any documentation required under Section 10 of this Agreement.

(b) Purchaser shall execute, acknowledge and/or deliver to the Escrow Agent, at Purchaser's cost and expense:

(i) Any documents or instruments required to be executed pursuant to this Agreement, or otherwise reasonably necessary to be executed or delivered for consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(ii) Purchaser shall deliver the documentation necessary to issue the Preferred Stock Options.

(iii) In the event Purchaser elects to assume any of the leases affecting the Property, Purchaser shall execute an Assignment and Assumption of Leases.

(iv) Any documentation required under Section 10 of this Agreement.

13. Possession. The Purchaser shall be entitled to exclusive possession of the Property at the Closing.

14. Costs and Expenses. Seller agrees to pay the cost of all charges incurred by Seller for the procurement, preparation and recording of any releases, waivers, consents, and other instruments required to clear Seller's title to the Property in accordance with the provisions hereof, including the Deed, the cost of the Title Policy, one-half of the escrow fee, any and all taxes that may become due and owing by reason of the sale of the Property. Purchaser agrees to pay the cost of any endorsements to the Title Policy, one-half of the escrow fee, and the cost of inspections performed by Purchaser. Each Party agrees to pay its own attorneys' fees. Additionally, Seller agrees to pay all brokerage fees associated with this transaction.

15. Prorations. Real estate taxes on the Property for the year of the Closing shall be prorated through the date of Closing. If such taxes are not known at Closing, then the parties agree to prorate real estate taxes for the year of Closing based on the 2010 real estate tax amount.

16. Taxes. Purchaser shall pay any transfer and use tax that may be assessed. The amount of any real estate conveyance tax, excise tax, or other similar fees or taxes (other than normal recording fees) which may become payable in connection with the sale of the Property or the recording of the Deed shall be paid by Purchaser.

17. Risk of Loss. Risk of loss with respect to the Property shall be on Seller until the Closing. In the event of any damage to or destruction to the Property prior to the Closing, Purchaser, at its exclusive election, exercisable in its absolute discretion either (a) may complete the purchase of the Property in its existing condition and receive from Seller at the Closing any insurance proceeds relating to such damage or destruction which have been received by Seller and not expended to repair or restore the Property (or an assignment of the right to receive such proceeds from the insurance company if they have not yet been paid, but only to the extent such rights exist), or (b) at any time prior to Closing, may elect to terminate this Agreement. This Section is intended as an express provision with respect to casualty of the Property which supersedes the provisions of the Nevada Uniform Vendor and Purchaser Risk Act.

18. Remedies. In the event Seller shall be deemed to be in default hereunder following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, Purchaser, at Purchaser's option shall have the following limited rights to either (i) terminate this Agreement, whereupon Purchaser shall be entitled to an immediate refund of the Deposit, and the Parties hereto shall have no further obligations to one another hereunder, or (ii) seek enforcement of specific performance of this Agreement. Provided, however, that Purchaser's ability to pursue an action for specific performance for Seller's failure to complete the Closing shall be conditioned upon Purchaser's filing in court a lawsuit for specific performance no later than sixty (60) days after the Closing Date or the right to seek specific performance shall be waived by Purchaser. Seller shall have no liability for damages. In the event the purchase and sale contemplated hereby is not closed by reason of Purchaser's inability, failure or refusal to perform Purchaser's obligations hereunder, then Seller shall retain the Deposit as full liquidated damages, whereupon no party hereto shall have any further rights, claims or liabilities hereunder. Purchaser and Seller hereby specifically acknowledge and agree that the damage to Seller from Purchaser's breach hereunder would be difficult or impossible to accurately determine, that the Deposit is a reasonable estimate of Seller's damages, and that the retention by Seller of the Deposit does not constitute a penalty.

19. Condemnation. In the event that any action is initiated prior to the Closing by any governmental entity to acquire all or a substantial portion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, then Purchaser at its exclusive election may elect to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of the exercise of such election to Seller within twenty (20) days after Seller furnishes written notice of the commencement of such condemnation or eminent domain proceedings to Purchaser or, if no such notice is furnished by Seller, at any time prior to the Closing. For purposes of this paragraph, "a substantial portion of the Property" shall mean such portion of the Property whose taking would make the remaining portion of the Property unsuitable or uneconomical in Purchaser's reasonable business judgment for its intended use for the Property. In the event that such condemnation or eminent domain proceedings involve the taking of less than a substantial portion of the Property, then Purchaser shall have no right to terminate this Agreement, but at the Closing, Seller shall pay over or assign to Purchaser the proceeds of any award made to or received by, or which may be made to or received by, Seller in such condemnation or eminent domain proceedings and all of Seller's rights thereto. Under no circumstances shall Seller have the right to terminate this Agreement as a result of anything contained in this Paragraph 19. This Section is intended as an express provision with respect to condemnation of the Property which supersedes the provisions of the Nevada Uniform Vendor and Purchaser Risk Act.

20. Multiple Copies. The Parties may execute multiple copies of this Agreement, each of which shall be an original for all purposes.

21. Binding Agreement. This Agreement shall run with the land which is the subject of this Agreement and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

27. Attorney's Fees. In any action between the Parties seeking enforcement of any of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, or in connection with the Property, the prevailing Party in those actions shall be awarded, in addition to costs, damages, injunctive or other relief, its actual costs and expenses incurred in that action including, but not limited to, its reasonable attorneys' fees.

28. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Nevada.

29. Waiver of Jury Trial. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Buyer and Seller hereby forever waive the right to trial by jury in the event of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the instruments delivered in connection therewith, and agree that any such suit, action, or proceeding shall be tried by the court.

No amendment of this Agreement shall be effective or binding unless it is in writing and has been signed by each of the Parties.

34. Incorporation of Exhibits. This Agreement shall be deemed to have incorporated by reference all Exhibits referred to herein to the same extent as if such Exhibits were fully set forth herein. Each reference to "this Agreement" shall be construed to include each such Exhibit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties or their duly authorized representatives have executed this Agreement, all as of the date first above written.
