Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On September 24, 2012, Morgan Stanley Infrastructure Partners (MSIP) completed its acquisition of the remaining 60% economic stake and 50% voting stake in Southern Star Central Corp. (the “Company”). Effective on that same date, each of Mark Mellana and Tyson Yates resigned as members of the Board of Directors of the Company. On September 26, 2012, the number of members on the Board of Directors of the Company was reduced from four to three pursuant to shareholder consent and Mr. Thomas Gray was elected to the Board of Directors of the Company by written consent of the remaining Directors of the Company.

Mr. Gray, 40, has worked for MSIP’s Management Group since February 2009 and is currently an Executive Director and Senior Manager with that group. Before joining MSIP, Mr. Gray worked for Lehman Brothers Global Infrastructure Partners where he held positions as Senior Vice President and Principal. He also held positions in the Power and Utility Industry Group in the Investment Banking Division of Lehman Brothers where he specialized in regulated utilities, wholesale power generation and project financing. Mr. Gray serves on the board of several MSIP portfolio companies, including Chicago Parking Meters, LLC, Madrilena Red de Gas and Montreal Gateway Terminals, LP Corp. Mr. Gray holds a M.B.A. in Finance and Management and a B.S. in Finance and International Business from the Stern School of Business at New York University.
