DOLLAR TREE, INC.
NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Dollar Tree, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (the "Company") have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and are presented in accordance with the requirements of Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations for the year ended February 2, 2013 contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed March 15, 2013. The results of operations for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the entire fiscal year ending February 1, 2014.

In the Company's opinion, the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included herein contain all adjustments (consisting of those of a normal recurring nature) considered necessary for a fair presentation of its financial position as of May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the periods presented. The February 2, 2013 balance sheet information was derived from the audited consolidated financial statements as of that date.

2. LITIGATION MATTERS

In 2006, a former store manager filed a collective action against the Company in Alabama federal court claiming that she and other store managers should have been classified as non-exempt employees under the Fair Labor Standards Act and received overtime compensation. The Court preliminarily allowed nationwide (except California) certification. The Company filed a motion to decertify on February 29, 2012 and that motion was granted on November 2, 2012. The individual claims of the four named plaintiffs proceeded to trial and on March 1, 2013, the jury returned verdicts in all four cases in favor of the Company. The individual claims of the remaining 261 opt-in plaintiffs were dismissed without prejudice and approximately 61 of these plaintiffs have filed individual suits in various federal courts throughout the country. Plaintiffs have appealed the decertification Order and the jury verdicts to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit.

In April 2011, a former assistant store manager, on behalf of himself and those similarly situated, instituted a class action in a California state court primarily alleging a failure by the Company to provide meal breaks, to compensate for all hours worked, and to pay overtime compensation. The Company removed the case to federal court which denied plaintiffs' motion for remand of the case to state court. Discovery in this case is at an early stage. No trial date has been set.

In June 2011, Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc. and various of its affiliates instituted suit in federal court in Florida alleging that the Company, in approximately 48 shopping centers in the state of Florida and five other states where Dollar Tree and Winn-Dixie are both tenants, was selling goods and products in Dollar Tree stores in violation of an exclusive right of Winn-Dixie to sell and distribute such items. It sought both monetary damages and injunctive relief. At approximately the same time, Winn-Dixie also sued Dollar General, Inc. and Big Lots, Inc. making essentially the same allegations against them and seeking the same relief. The Court consolidated the three cases and they proceeded to trial, without a jury, in May of 2012. On August 10, 2012, the Court issued its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The ruling denied Winn-Dixie's claim for monetary damages, either compensatory or punitive, and, of the original 48 Dollar Tree stores at issue, granted plaintiff's request for injunctive relief with respect to just one store. A final Order incorporating these findings and conclusions was entered and Winn-Dixie has appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit.

In the summer and fall of 2011, five collective action lawsuits were filed against the Company in federal courts in Georgia, Colorado, Florida, Michigan and Illinois by different assistant store managers, each alleging he or she was forced to work off the clock in violation of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). Plaintiffs also assert various state law claims for which they seek class treatment. The Michigan case is currently stayed. The Florida case has been transferred to the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia and has been stayed. The Georgia suit sought statewide class certification. Those state law claims were ultimately dismissed prior to the case also being transferred to the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. The Colorado case is farthest along in terms of litigation. Although the statewide class claims were dismissed, the Court did conditionally certify under the FLSA a class of all assistant store managers who worked for Dollar Tree from July 16, 2008 to the present. Approximately 2,200 plaintiffs have opted-in to the collective action and discovery is on-going. The trial is scheduled to commence in March 2014. The Illinois case, in addition to assistant store managers, also included a putative class of all other hourly store associates and made the same allegations on their behalf. The Illinois case was transferred to the Eastern District of Virginia in June 2012 and the Virginia federal judge ruled that all claims made on behalf of assistant store managers under both the FLSA and state law should be dismissed. The court, however, did conditionally certify under the FLSA a class of all sales associates who worked for Dollar Tree from October 2, 2009 to the present. Notice to the putative class was issued and approximately 6,280 plaintiffs opted into the case. Certification discovery is under way and no trial date has been set.

In July 2012, a former non-exempt hourly associate who alleges his primary duty was to work the cash register, on behalf of himself and those similarly aggrieved, filed a Complaint under the California Private Attorneys General Act, in a California state court, alleging the Company failed to provide suitable seating as allegedly required by state law. The Company removed the case to federal court and filed its Answer to the Complaint. After discovery and the filing by the Company of its expert witness report, the parties agreed to a settlement in the first quarter of 2013 for an immaterial amount which has been accrued in the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements.

In July 2012, a former assistant store manager, on behalf of himself and those similarly situated, filed a class action Complaint in a California state court, alleging the Company failed to provide paid, duty-free 10 minute rest breaks to assistant store managers who worked for periods in excess of three and one-half hours. The alleged relevant time period is July 13, 2008 to the present. The Company removed the case to federal court, however, it was remanded to state court when plaintiff indicated the damages sought were less than $5 million, the jurisdictional amount under the federal Class Action Fairness Act. No trial date has been set.

In August 2012, two former store managers, under California's Private Attorney General Act, instituted suit in a California state court, on behalf of themselves and others similarly aggrieved in the state of California, alleging they were misclassified by the Company as exempt employees. The Company removed the case to federal court. Discovery has commenced; no trial date has been set.

In February 2013, a former assistant store manager on behalf of himself and those similarly aggrieved filed a representative claim under California's Private Attorney General Act, alleging the Company failed to provide meal and rest periods; failed to pay minimum, regular and overtime wages; failed to maintain accurate time records and wage statements; and failed to pay wages due upon termination of employment. The Company removed the case from a California state court to federal court. Discovery will commence in the near future. No trial date has been set.

The Company will vigorously defend itself in these matters. The Company does not believe that any of these matters will, individually or in the aggregate, have a material effect on its business or financial condition. The Company cannot give assurance, however, that one or more of these lawsuits will not have a material effect on its results of operations for the period in which they are resolved. Based on the information available to the Company, including the amount of time remaining before trial, the results of discovery and the judgment of internal and external counsel, the Company is unable to express an opinion as to the outcome of those matters which are not settled and cannot estimate a potential range of loss.

3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Company's cash and cash equivalents, restricted investments and diesel fuel swaps represent the financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis as of May 4, 2013. As required, financial assets and liabilities are classified in the fair value hierarchy in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Company's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement requires judgment and may affect the valuation of fair value assets and liabilities and their placement within the fair value hierarchy levels. The fair value of the Company's cash and cash equivalents and restricted investments was $383.3 million and $79.6 million, respectively, at May 4, 2013. These fair values were determined using Level 1 measurements in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value of the diesel fuel swaps as of May 4, 2013 was an asset of $0.2 million and was estimated using Level 2 measurements in the fair value hierarchy which used discounted cash flow calculations based upon diesel fuel cost curves.

The carrying values of the Company's Unsecured Credit Agreement and Demand Revenue Bonds approximate their fair values because their interest rates vary with market interest rates.

Certain assets and liabilities are measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis; that is, the assets and liabilities are not measured at fair value on an ongoing basis but are subject to fair value adjustments in certain circumstances (e.g., when there is evidence of impairment). There were no changes in fair value related to these assets during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013.

4. NET INCOME PER SHARE

The following table sets forth the calculations of basic and diluted net income per share:

(in millions, except per share data)	13 weeks ended
	May 4, 2013	April 28, 2012
Basic net income per share:
Net income	$ 133.5	$ 116.1
Weighted average number of shares outstanding	224.2	231.5
Basic net income per share	$ 0.60	$ 0.50
Diluted net income per share:
Net income	$ 133.5	$ 116.1
Weighted average number of shares outstanding	224.2	231.5
Dilutive effect of stock options and restricted stock (as determined by applying the treasury stock method)	1.0	1.3
Weighted average number of shares and dilutive potential shares outstanding	225.2	232.8
Diluted net income per share	$ 0.59	$ 0.50

For the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, substantially all of the stock options outstanding were included in the calculation of the weighted average number of shares and dilutive potential shares outstanding.

5. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company's stock-based compensation expense primarily includes the fair value of restricted stock units (RSUs) and employees' purchase rights under the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Stock-based compensation expense was $15.6 million and $13.9 million, during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively.

The Company granted approximately 0.5 million service-based RSUs from the Omnibus Incentive Plan (Omnibus Plan) to employees and officers in the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013. The estimated $24.0 million fair value of these RSUs is being expensed ratably over the three-year vesting periods, or a shorter period based on the retirement eligibility of certain grantees. The fair value was determined using the Company's closing stock price on the date of grant. The Company recognized $3.8 million of expense related to these RSUs during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013.

In the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 the Company granted 0.2 million RSUs with a fair value of $8.7 million from the Omnibus Plan to certain officers of the Company, contingent on the Company meeting certain performance targets in fiscal 2013. If the Company meets these performance targets in fiscal 2013, the RSUs will vest ratably over three years, ending March 22, 2016. The estimated fair value of these RSUs is being expensed ratably over the three-year vesting periods, or a shorter period based on the retirement eligibility of certain grantees. The Company recognized $5.2 million of expense related to these RSUs in the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013.

In the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 the Company granted RSUs with a fair value of $1.4 million from the Omnibus Plan to certain officers of the Company, contingent on the Company meeting certain performance targets for the period beginning on February 3, 2013 and ending on January 30, 2016. Provided the vesting conditions are satisfied, the awards will vest at the end of the performance period. The estimated fair value of these RSUs is being expensed ratably over the three-year vesting periods, or a shorter period based on the retirement eligibility of certain grantees. The Company recognized $0.6 million of expense related to these RSUs in the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013.

The Company recognized $5.5 million of expense related to RSUs granted prior to fiscal 2013 in the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013. For the thirteen weeks ended April 28, 2012, the Company recognized $4.9 million of expense related to these RSUs.

In the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, approximately 1.0 million RSUs vested and approximately 0.6 million shares, net of taxes, were issued. During the thirteen weeks ended April 28, 2012, approximately 1.3 million RSUs vested and approximately 0.8 million shares, net of taxes, were issued.

6. FUEL DERIVATIVE CONTRACTS

In order to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from changes in diesel fuel costs, the Company entered into fuel derivative contracts with third parties. The Company hedged 0.7 million and 1.4 million gallons of diesel fuel in the first quarter of 2013 and 2012, respectively, which represented 19% and 41% of the total domestic truckload fuel needs for these periods. The Company has entered into fuel derivative contracts for 2.2 million gallons of diesel fuel, or approximately 20% of the Company's domestic truckload fuel needs from May 2013 through January 2014. Under these contracts, the Company pays the third party a fixed price for diesel fuel and receives variable diesel fuel prices at amounts approximating current diesel fuel costs, thereby creating the economic equivalent of a fixed-rate obligation. These derivative contracts do not qualify for hedge accounting and therefore all changes in fair value for these derivatives are included in "Other (income) expense, net" on the accompanying condensed consolidated income statements. The fair value of these contracts at May 4, 2013 was an asset of $0.2 million.

7. SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

The Company repurchased approximately 1.5 million shares of common stock on the open market for approximately $68.4 million during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013. As of May 4, 2013, the Company has $791.3 million remaining under Board repurchase authorization.

Item 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE: Unless otherwise stated, references to "we," "our" and "us" generally refer to Dollar Tree, Inc. and its direct and indirect subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS: This document contains "forward-looking statements" as that term is used in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements address future events, developments or results and typically use words such as "believe," "anticipate," "expect," "intend," "plan," "view," "target" or "estimate." For example, our forward-looking statements include statements regarding:

- our anticipated sales, including comparable store net sales, net sales growth, earnings growth and new store growth;
- costs of pending and possible future legal claims;
- the average size of our stores and their performance compared with other store sizes;
- the effect of the continued shift in merchandise mix to include more consumables and the continued roll-out of frozen and refrigerated merchandise on gross profit margin and sales;
- the possible effect of the current economic downturn, inflation and other economic changes on our costs and profitability, including future changes in domestic and foreign freight costs, shipping rates, fuel costs and wage and benefit costs;

- our cash needs, including our ability to fund our future capital expenditures and working capital requirements; and,
- the future reliability of, and cost associated with, our sources of supply, particularly imported goods such as those sourced from China and Hong Kong.

For a discussion of the risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect our future events, developments or results, you should carefully review the risk factors summarized below and the more detailed discussions in the "Risk Factors" and "Business" sections in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed March 15, 2013. Also see section 1A. "Risk Factors" in Part II of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

- Our profitability is vulnerable to cost increases.
- A downturn in economic conditions could impact our sales.
- Litigation may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.
- Changes in federal, state or local law, or our failure to comply with such laws, could increase our expenses and expose us to legal risks.
- Our growth is dependent on our ability to increase sales in existing stores and to expand our square footage profitably.
- Risks associated with our domestic and foreign suppliers from whom our products are sourced could affect our financial performance.
- We could encounter disruptions in our distribution network or additional costs in distributing merchandise.
- Our profitability is affected by the mix of products we sell.
- Pressure from competitors may reduce our sales and profits.
- A significant disruption in or security breach in our computer systems could adversely affect our operations or our ability to secure customer, employee and company data.
- Our business could be adversely affected if we fail to attract and retain qualified associates and key personnel.
- Certain provisions in our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws could delay or discourage a takeover attempt that may be in a shareholder's best interest.

Our forward-looking statements could be wrong in light of these and other risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The future events, developments or results described in this report could turn out to be materially different. We have no obligation to publicly update or revise our forward-looking statements after the date of this quarterly report and you should not expect us to do so.

Investors should also be aware that while we do, from time to time, communicate with securities analysts and others, it is against our policy to selectively disclose to them any material nonpublic information or other confidential commercial information. Accordingly, shareholders should not assume that we agree with any statement or report issued by any analyst regardless of the content of the statement or report, as we have a policy against confirming information issued by others. Thus, to the extent that reports issued by securities analysts contain any financial projections, forecasts or opinions, such reports are not our responsibility.

Overview

Our net sales are derived from the sale of merchandise. Two major factors tend to affect our net sales trends. First is our success at opening new stores or adding new stores through mergers or acquisitions. Second is the performance of stores once they are open. Sales vary at our existing stores from one year to the next. We refer to this change as a change in comparable store net sales, because we include only those stores that are open throughout both of the periods being compared, beginning after the first fifteen months of operation. We include sales from stores expanded during the period in the calculation of comparable store net sales, which has the effect of increasing our comparable store net sales. The term “expanded” also includes stores that are relocated.

At May 4, 2013; we operated 4,612 stores in 48 states and the District of Columbia, as well as 151 stores in Canada, with a total of 41.2 million selling square feet compared to 4,451 stores with 38.6 million selling square feet at April 28, 2012. During the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, we opened 94 stores, expanded 16 stores and closed 2 stores, compared to 110 stores opened, 44 stores expanded and 10 stores closed during the thirteen weeks ended April 28, 2012. In the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, we added approximately 0.8 million and 1.0 million selling square feet, respectively. The average size of stores opened during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 was approximately 8,100 selling square feet. We believe that this size store is in the range of our optimal size operationally and that this size also gives our customers a shopping environment which invites them to shop longer, buy more and make return visits, which increases our customer traffic.

For the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, comparable store net sales increased 2.1% due to increased average ticket and increased customer traffic. We believe comparable store net sales continue to be positively affected by a number of our initiatives, as debit and credit card penetration continued to increase in the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, and we continued the roll-out of frozen and refrigerated merchandise to more of our stores. At May 4, 2013, we had frozen and refrigerated merchandise in approximately 2,780 stores compared to approximately 2,340 stores at April 28, 2012. We believe that this has and will continue to enable us to increase sales and earnings by increasing the number of shopping trips made by our customers. In addition, we accept food stamps (under the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (“SNAP”)) in approximately 4,310 qualified stores compared to approximately 3,985 stores at April 28, 2012.

Results of Operations

13 Weeks Ended May 4, 2013 Compared to the 13 Weeks Ended April 28, 2012

Net Sales. Net sales increased 8.3%, or $142.2 million, compared with last year's first quarter resulting from sales in our new stores and a 2.1% increase in comparable store net sales. Comparable store net sales are positively affected by our expanded and relocated stores, which we include in the calculation, and are negatively affected when we open new stores or expand stores near existing stores.

Gross Profit. Gross profit margin increased to 35.2% in the current quarter compared to 35.0% in the same quarter last year. Improvement in initial mark-up in many categories and leverage of occupancy and distribution costs resulting from the comparable store sales increase were partially offset by higher shrink costs compared with the first quarter of 2012.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the current quarter decreased to 23.6%, as a percentage of net sales, compared to 24.1% for the same period last year. This net decrease was primarily due to the following:

- Payroll expenses decreased 35 basis points due to lower incentive compensation, improved store labor productivity and the leverage associated with the comparable store sales increase.
- Store operating costs decreased due to reduced repairs and maintenance expenses.
- Operating and corporate expenses decreased due to lower advertising and inventory service fees partially offset by increased legal fees.

Operating Income. Operating income for the current quarter was 11.6% as a percentage of net sales compared to 10.9% for the same period last year. This increase is the result of lower selling, general and administrative expenses and higher gross profit margin, as a percentage of net sales, as noted above.

Income Taxes. Our effective tax rate for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 was 38.1% compared to 38.4% for the thirteen weeks ended April 28, 2012. This decrease is the result of provisions in the American Taxpayer Relief Act that was enacted in January 2013.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our business requires capital to open new stores, expand our distribution network and operate our existing business. Our working capital requirements for our existing business are seasonal in nature and typically reach their peak in the months of September and October. Historically, we have satisfied our seasonal working capital requirements, funded our store opening and infrastructure expansion programs and repurchased shares from internally generated funds and borrowings under our credit facilities.

The following table compares cash flow information for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012:

(in millions)	13 Weeks Ended
	May 4, 2013	April 28, 2012
Net cash provided by (used in):
Operating activities	$ 129.3	$ 134.5
Investing activities	(88.2)	(65.4)
Financing activities	(57.4)	25.0

Net cash provided by operating activities decreased $5.2 million due primarily to an increase in cash used for inventory and compensation and benefits partially offset by increased earnings before depreciation and amortization and increases in accounts payable and income taxes payable.

Net cash used in investing activities increased $22.8 million due to increased capital expenditures offset slightly by a reduction in restricted cash requirements. Capital expenditures increased due to the construction of our new distribution center in Windsor, CT and the expansion of our distribution centers in San Bernardino, CA and Marietta, OK.

Net cash provided by financing activities decreased $82.4 million compared with the prior year, primarily due to increased share repurchases in the current year and lower tax benefits related to equity compensation.

At May 4, 2013, we had $250.0 million outstanding under the $750.0 million Unsecured Credit Agreement. We also have $110.0 million and $100.0 million Letter of Credit Reimbursement and Security Agreements, under which approximately $137.8 million was committed to letters of credit issued for routine purchases of imported merchandise as of May 4, 2013.

We repurchased 1.5 million and 0.1 million shares of common stock for $68.4 million and $4.5 million during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. As of May 4, 2013, we had $791.3 million remaining under Board repurchase authorization.

Item 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK.

We are exposed to various types of market risk in the normal course of our business, including the impact of interest rate changes and diesel fuel cost changes. We may enter into interest rate or diesel fuel swaps to manage exposure to interest rate and diesel fuel price changes. We do not enter into derivative instruments for any purpose other than cash flow hedging and we do not hold derivative instruments for trading purposes.

Diesel Fuel Cost Risk

In order to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from changes in diesel fuel costs, we entered into fuel derivative contracts with third parties. We hedged 0.7 million and 1.4 million gallons of diesel fuel in the first quarter of 2013 and 2012, respectively. These hedges represented approximately 19% and 41% of our total domestic truckload fuel needs in the first quarter of 2013 and 2012, respectively. We currently have fuel derivative contracts to hedge 2.2 million gallons of diesel fuel, or approximately 20% of our domestic truckload fuel needs from May 2013 through January 2014. Under these contracts, we pay the third party a fixed price for diesel fuel and receive variable diesel fuel prices at amounts approximating current diesel fuel costs, thereby creating the economic equivalent of a fixed-rate obligation. These derivative contracts do not qualify for hedge accounting and therefore all changes in fair value for these derivatives are included in earnings. The fair value of these contracts at May 4, 2013 was an asset of $0.2 million.

Item 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

Our management has carried out, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, an evaluation of the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon this evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of May 4, 2013, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were designed and functioning effectively to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms and (ii) accumulated and communicated to our management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding disclosure.

There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended May 4, 2013 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

From time to time, we are defendants in ordinary, routine litigation or proceedings incidental to our business, including allegations regarding:

- employment-related matters;
- infringement of intellectual property rights;
- personal injury/wrongful death claims;
- product safety matters, which may include product recalls in cooperation with the Consumer Products Safety Commission or other jurisdictions; and
- real estate matters related to store leases.

In addition, we are defendants in several class or collective action lawsuits. For a discussion of these lawsuits, please refer to "Note 2. Litigation Matters", included in "Part I. Financial Information, Item 1. Financial Statements" of this Form 10-Q.

We will vigorously defend ourselves in these matters. We do not believe that any of these matters will, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on our business or financial condition. We cannot give assurance, however, that one or more of these lawsuits will not have a material adverse effect on our results of operations for the period in which they are resolved.

Item 1A. RISK FACTORS.

There have been no material changes to the risk factors described in Item 1A. "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 15, 2013.

The following table presents our share repurchase activity for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013:

Retention Agreement

Dear Mr. Paisley:

Dollar Tree, Inc., a Virginia corporation (the "Company"), considers it in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to take reasonable steps to retain key management personnel. Further, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") recognizes that the uncertainty and questions which might arise among management in the context of a Change in Control could result in the departure or distraction of management personnel to the detriment of the Company and its stockholders.

The Board has determined, therefore, that appropriate steps should be taken to reinforce and encourage the continued attention and dedication of key members of management to their assigned duties without distraction in the face of potentially disturbing circumstances arising from any possible Change in Control.

The Board has identified you as a key member of management. In order to induce you to remain in the employ of the Company, the Company has determined to enter into this letter agreement (this "Agreement") which addresses the terms and conditions of your employment in the event of a Change in Control. Capitalized words which are not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such words in Section 8 of this Agreement.

1. Term of the Agreement. The term of your employment under this Agreement shall commence on the Change in Control Date (after application of Section 2(e)) and shall continue until the second anniversary of the Change in Control Date (the "Term"). Subject to Section 2(e), you shall have no rights and obligations under this Agreement, and no compensation or benefits will be payable to you hereunder, if your employment with the Company ends for any reason prior to the Change in Control Date.

2. Involuntary Termination During the Term.

(a) Severance Payment. In the event of your Involuntary Termination during the Term, the Company will pay you the following amounts:

- (i) Within 5 days of the date of such Involuntary Termination, the Company will pay you in a cash lump sum: (1) the full amount of any earned but unpaid base salary through the Date of Termination at the rate in effect at the time such base salary was earned by you; plus (2) the amount, if any, of any earned but unpaid cash bonus for the annual performance year ended immediately prior to the Date of Termination; plus (3) the amount of your accrued and unused vacation time as of the Date of Termination (calculated in accordance with the Company's vacation policy for executives, as in effect on the Date of Termination or, if more favorable to you, as in effect at any time within the two-year period ending on the Date of Termination).
- (ii) The Company will also pay you within 5 days of the Date of Termination a pro rata annual bonus for the year in which your Involuntary Termination occurs, equal to the product of A multiplied by B, where "A" is the number of days in the performance year up to and including the Date of Termination during which you were employed by the Company divided by the number of days in such calendar year; and where "B" is your Reference Bonus.

- (iii) In addition, subject to the last sentence of this Section 2(a)(iii), the Company will pay you an amount (the “Severance Payment”) equal to the product of C multiplied by D, where “C” is the Multiplier and where “D” is the sum of your Reference Salary plus your Reference Bonus. The Severance Payment shall be paid to you in substantially equal payroll installments (payable no less frequently than monthly) over the twelve-month period commencing immediately following your Date of Termination.

(b) Benefit Payment. In the event of your Involuntary Termination during the Term, you and your eligible dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate during the Benefit Continuation Period in the medical, dental, health and life insurance plans applicable to you immediately prior to your Involuntary Termination on the same terms and conditions in effect for you and your dependents immediately prior to such Involuntary Termination. For purposes of the previous sentence, “Benefit Continuation Period” means the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the earliest to occur of (i) the last day of the Multiplier Period, (ii) the date that you and your dependents are eligible for coverage under the plans of a subsequent employer and (iii) the last day of the month, if any, in which you deliver notice to the Company that you are exercising your right in accordance with the definition of Restricted Period in Section 8 to cease receiving Severance Payments under this Agreement.

(c) Outstanding Long-Term Awards.

- (i) In the event of your Involuntary Termination during the Term, then all Service-Based Conditions (as defined below) contained in all equity awards such as outstanding options, shares of restricted stock and restricted stock units granted to you prior to the Change in Control Date under the Long Term Plans which are outstanding as of your Date of Termination (“Outstanding Awards”) shall be deemed to have been satisfied on the Date of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, “Service-Based Conditions” shall mean any conditions for exercise, settlement or payment contained in an award under the Long Term Plans that require that you continue to be employed by the Company through a stated date.
- (ii) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any award under the Long Term Plans to the contrary, you agree with the Company that all such awards shall be subject to the provisions of Section 3.

(d) Date and Notice of Termination. Any termination of your employment by the Company or by you during the Term shall be communicated by a notice of termination to the other party hereto (the “Notice of Termination”). The Notice of Termination shall indicate the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon and shall set forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of your employment under the provision so indicated. The date of your termination of employment with the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Date of Termination”) shall be determined as follows: (i) if your employment is terminated for Disability, 30 days after a Notice of Termination is given (provided that you shall not have returned to the full-time performance of your duties during such 30-day period), (ii) if your employment is terminated by the Company in an Involuntary Termination, five days after the date the Notice of Termination is received by you and (iii) if your employment is terminated by the Company for Cause, the later of the date specified in the Notice of Termination or ten days following the date such notice is received by you. If the basis for your Involuntary Termination is your resignation for Good Reason, the Date of Termination shall be ten days after the date your Notice of Termination is received by the Company. The Date of Termination for a resignation of employment other than for Good Reason shall be the date set forth in the applicable notice, which shall be no earlier than ten days after the date such notice is received by the Company.

(e) Early Commencement of the Term. If your employment with the Company ends in an Involuntary Termination within the six-month period ending on the Change in Control Date (as such term is defined in Section 8 prior to application of this Section 2(e)), and it is reasonably demonstrated that your Involuntary Termination (i) was caused by, or at the request of, the third party who has taken steps reasonably calculated to effect the Change in Control or (ii) otherwise arose in connection with or in anticipation of the Change in Control, then, for all purposes of this Agreement:

(A) the Term shall be deemed to have commenced on the date immediately prior to the date of such Involuntary Termination;

(B) any payments required under Section 2(a)(ii) shall be made within 5 days after the Change in Control Date and any payments required under Section 2(a)(iii) shall be made in substantially equal payroll installments (payable no less frequently than monthly) over the twelve-month period commencing immediately following the Change in Control Date;

(C) for purposes of any Outstanding Award only, you shall be deemed to have continued in service until the Change in Control Date and all Service-Based Conditions shall be deemed to have been satisfied on the Change in Control Date; and

(D) with respect to Outstanding Awards, the expiration date for exercise shall be extended until on the earlier of the 90-day anniversary of the Change in Control Date or the ten-year anniversary of the relevant grant date.

(f) Other Terminations or Resignations. No amounts shall be payable to you under this Agreement if your employment ends during the Term for any reason other than an Involuntary Termination. If your employment ends during the Term for any reason other than an Involuntary Termination, you shall be entitled to receive only the compensation and benefits contemplated by the terms and provisions of the Company's plans and arrangements then in effect.

(g) No Mitigation or Offset. You will not be required to mitigate the amount of any payment provided for in this Agreement by seeking other employment or otherwise, nor will the amount of any payment or benefit provided for in this Agreement be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer or by pension benefits paid by the Company or another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise, except as specifically provided in clause (ii) of the last sentence of Section 2(b).

(h) Effective of Breach of Section 4. Except for rights and benefits described in Section 2(a)(i), you shall immediately forfeit your right to any payments of benefits under this Section 2 if you violate the provisions of Section 4. Such forfeiture by you shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any remedies otherwise available to the Company at law or in equity as a result of such violation by you.

3. Limitation of Payments.

(a) Claw-back. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any Payments to you would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), the Company shall take such action as shall be reasonably necessary to reduce the aggregate amount of Payments due to you (the "Claw-back Amount") such that the present value of all such Payments (as determined under the Code and regulations) is equal to 2.99 times your "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code). No Claw-back Amount shall be necessary hereunder if the Accounting Firm determines that none of the Payments are subject to the Excise Tax. The Company shall reduce Payments in a manner that is reasonably intended to maximize the aggregate amount of the compensation and benefits retained by you under this Agreement and under any other compensation and benefit arrangements that result in Payments to you, including the Long-Term Plans. The Company and the Accounting Firm shall implement the provisions of this Section 3 in a manner that is consistent with any claw-back provisions in the Long-Term Plans.

(b) Determination of Claw-back Amount. Subject to the provisions of Section 3(c), all determinations required under this Section 3, including the amount of the Payments constituting excess parachute payments, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code, the Claw-back Amount, and the Payments to which the Claw-back Amount shall be applied in accordance with the last sentence of Section 3(a), shall be made by the Accounting Firm, which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to you and the Company within 90 days of the Change in Control Date, your Date of Termination or any other date reasonably requested by you or the Company on which a determination under this Section 3 is necessary or advisable. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon you and the Company.

(c) Procedures. You shall notify the Company in writing of any claim by the Internal Revenue Service that, if successful, would require the payment of the Excise Tax. Such notice shall be given as soon as practicable after you know of such claim and shall apprise the Company of the nature of the claim and the date on which the claim is requested to be paid. You agree not to pay the claim until the expiration of the 30-day period following the date on which you notify the Company, or such shorter period ending on the date the taxes with respect to such claim are due (the "Notice Period"). If the Company notifies you in writing prior to the expiration of the Notice Period that it desires to contest the claim, you shall: (i) give the Company any information reasonably requested by the Company relating to the claim; (ii) take such action in connection with the claim as the Company may reasonably request, including accepting legal representation with respect to such claim by an attorney reasonably selected by the Company and reasonably acceptable to you; (iii) cooperate with the Company in good faith in contesting the claim; and (iv) permit the Company to participate in any proceedings relating to the claim. You shall permit the Company to control all proceedings related to the claim and, at its option, permit the Company to pursue or forgo any and all administrative appeals, proceedings, hearings, and conferences with the taxing authority in respect of such claim.

(d) Further Assurances. The Company shall indemnify you and hold you harmless, on an after-tax basis, from any costs, expenses, penalties, fines, interest or other liabilities (“ Losses ”) incurred by you with respect to the exercise by the Company of any of its rights under this Section 3(c), including any Losses related to the Company's decision to contest a claim or any action taken on your behalf by the Company hereunder. The Company shall pay all legal fees and expenses incurred under this Section 3, and shall promptly reimburse you for the reasonable expenses incurred by you in connection with any actions taken by the Company or required to be taken by you under this Section 3. The Company shall also pay all of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

4. Protective Covenants.

(a) Nondisparagement. You shall not, during the Restricted Period, make any statement, in written, oral or electronic form, in disparagement of the Companies or of any of the officers, shareholders, directors, employees, agents, or associates of any of the Companies (including, but not limited to, negative references to any of the Companies and the products, services, or corporate policies of any of the Companies) to the general public or the employees, employees, customers, suppliers, potential suppliers, business partners or potential business partners of any of the Companies.

(b) Nonsolicitation. You shall not, during the Restricted Period, either directly or indirectly, for yourself or on behalf of any other person or entity, solicit, induce, recruit, or encourage any employees of any of the Companies to leave their employment, or take away such employees, or attempt to solicit, induce, recruit, encourage, take-away, or hire any such employees either for your benefit or for the benefit of any other person or entity.

(c) Noncompetition. You shall not, during the Restricted Period, either directly or indirectly, provide services to any Competitor, including as a spokesperson, endorser, creditor, guarantor, financial backer, investor, stockholder, director, officer, consultant, adviser, employee, member, trustee or agent, or in any similar capacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 4(c) shall not be deemed to prohibit your purchase or ownership, as a passive investment, of not more than 5% of the issued and outstanding stock or other securities of a corporation listed on a national securities exchange or traded in the over-the-counter market.

(d) Confidential Information. You shall not, during the Restricted Period, disclose any confidential information or trade secrets related to the business or operations of any of the Companies that you acquired in connection with your employment by or association with any of the Companies.

5. Indemnification. If you are made a party, are threatened to be made a party to, or otherwise receive any other legal process in, any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a “ Proceeding ”), by reason of the fact that you are or were a director, officer or employee of any of the Companies or are or were serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, member, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether or not the basis of such Proceeding is your alleged action in an official capacity while serving as director, officer, member, employee or agent of any of the Companies, the Company shall indemnify you and hold you harmless to the fullest extent permitted or authorized by the Company's Articles of Incorporation, By Laws or under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, but in no event greater than permitted by applicable state law, against all cost, expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement and any cost and fees incurred in enforcing your rights to indemnification or contribution) reasonably incurred or suffered by you in connection therewith. To the extent that the Company maintains officers' and directors' liability insurance, you will be covered under such policy subject to the exclusions and limitations set forth therein.

6. Legal Fees and Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse you on an after-tax basis for all reasonable legal fees and expenses (including court costs) incurred by you as a result of any claim by you (or on your behalf) that is successful on the merits or settled in your favor (i) arising out of your termination of employment during the Term, (ii) contesting, disputing or enforcing any right, benefits or obligations under this Agreement or (iii) arising out of or challenging the validity, advisability or enforceability of this Agreement or any provision thereof. You shall be responsible to reimburse the Company for all reasonable legal fees and expenses (including court costs) incurred by the Company as a result of any claim by you that is determined by a court having final jurisdiction over such claim, to have been frivolous.

7. Successors; Binding Agreement.

(a) Assumption by Successor. The Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company expressly to assume and to agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession had taken place; provided, however, that no such assumption shall relieve the Company of its obligations hereunder without your prior written consent.

(b) Enforceability; Beneficiaries. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of you and the Company and any organization which succeeds to substantially all of the business or assets of the Company, whether by means of merger, consolidation, acquisition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or otherwise, including as a result of a Change in Control or by operation of law. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by your personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees. If you should die while any amount would still be payable to you hereunder if you had continued to live, all such amounts, unless otherwise provided herein, shall be paid in accordance with the terms of this Agreement to your devisee, legatee or other designee or, if there is no such designee, to your estate.

8. Definitions and Rules of Construction.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, the following capitalized words shall have the meanings set forth below:

“Accounting Firm” shall mean a nationally recognized accounting firm designated by the Company and approved by you, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

“Agreement” shall have the meaning set forth in the third paragraph of this Agreement.

“Benefit Continuation Period” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2(b).

“Board” shall have the meaning set forth in the second paragraph of this Agreement.

“Catch-Up Amount” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.

“Cause” shall mean a termination of your employment during the Term by the Company as a result of any of the following occurring during the Term:

- (i) your felony conviction, whether following trial or by plea of guilty or nolo contendere (or similar plea);
- (ii) your engaging in any fraudulent or dishonest conduct with respect to the performance of your duties with the Companies;

- (vi) your willful and continued failure substantially to perform your duties with the Companies (other than any such failure resulting from your incapacity due to physical or mental illness or any such actual or anticipated failure resulting from a resignation by you for Good Reason) after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to you by the Board, which demand specifically identifies the manner in which the Board believes that you have not substantially performed your duties, and which performance is not substantially corrected by you within thirty days of receipt of such demand. For purposes of this clause (v), no act or failure to act on your part shall be deemed “willful” unless done, or omitted to be done, by you not in good faith and without reasonable belief that your action or omission was in the best interest of the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, you shall not be deemed to have been terminated for Cause unless and until there shall have been delivered to you a copy of a resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than three-fourths (3/4ths) of the entire membership of the Board at a meeting of the Board called and held for such purpose (after reasonable notice to you and an opportunity for you, together with your counsel, to be heard before the Board), finding that in the good faith opinion of the Board you were guilty of conduct set forth above constituting Cause and specifying the particulars thereof. For purposes of this definition, “ Board ” shall mean the Board of Directors of the Company or of any successor to the Company.

“Change in Control” shall mean a change in control of the Company of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Exchange Act, whether or not the Company is then subject to such reporting requirement; provided , however , that, anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, a Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred if:

- (i) any individual, partnership, firm, corporation, association, trust, unincorporated organization or other entity or person, or any syndicate or group deemed to be a person under Section 14(d)(2) of the Exchange Act, is or becomes the “beneficial owner” (as defined in Rule 13d-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 50% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities entitled to vote in the election of directors of the Company;
- (ii) during any period of two (2) consecutive years (not including any period prior to the execution of this Agreement), individuals who at the beginning of such period constituted the Board and any new directors, whose election by the Board or nomination for election by the Company's stockholders was approved by a vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the directors then still in office who either were directors at the beginning of the period or whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved (the “ Incumbent Directors ”), cease for any reason to constitute a majority thereof;
- (iii) there occurs a Transaction with respect to which the stockholders of the Company immediately prior to such Transaction do not, immediately after the Transaction, own more than 50% of the combined voting power of the Company or other corporation resulting from such Transaction; or
- (iv) all or substantially all of the assets of the Company are sold, liquidated or distributed.

“Change in Control Date” shall mean, subject to Section 2(e), the earliest of (i) the date on which the Change in Control occurs, (ii) the date on which the Company executes an agreement, the consummation of which would result in the occurrence of a Change in Control, (iii) the date the Board approves a transaction or series of transactions, the consummation of which would result in a Change in Control, and (iv) the date the Company fails to satisfy its obligations to have this Agreement assumed by any successor to the Company in accordance with Section 7(a) of this Agreement. - (vii) Any termination (or purported termination) of your employment which is not effected pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; or (viii) Any material breach by the Company of this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the above, an event shall not constitute Good Reason unless it is communicated by you to the Company in writing within 90 days following the date you know of the occurrence of such event, and such event is not corrected by the Company in a manner which is reasonably satisfactory to you (including full retroactive correction with respect to any monetary matter) within 10 days of the Company's receipt of such written notice from you.

"Reference Bonus" shall mean the average of the actual cash bonuses earned and paid (or payable) to you for the three performance years ended prior to the year in which occurs your Date of Termination (but in no event greater than the target bonus for the year in which the Date of Termination occurs). If there are fewer than three performance years ended prior to the year in which occurs your Date of Termination, the actual number of performance years (and the bonuses for such years) shall be used in calculating such average and, in the event that you are first employed by the Company in the year in which occurs your Date of Termination, your reference bonus shall equal 75% of your target bonus for such year. Unless otherwise expressly noted herein, paragraph, section and exhibit references are to the paragraphs, sections and exhibits of this Agreement. Whenever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they are deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation,” unless the context clearly requires otherwise. The headings contained in this Agreement are intended solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the rights of the parties to this Agreement.

9. Notice. All notices, requests, consents and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing (including electronic transmission) and shall be (as elected by the person giving such notice) hand delivered by messenger or courier service, electronically transmitted, or mailed (airmail if international) by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid), return receipt requested, addressed to the Board of Directors, Dollar Tree, Inc., 500 Volvo Parkway, Chesapeake, VA 23320, with a copy to the General Counsel of the Company, or to you at the address set forth on the first page of this Agreement or to such other address as any party may designate by notice complying with the provisions of this Section 9. Solely to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, any amounts payable to you pursuant to this Agreement during the period beginning on your Date of Termination and ending on the six-month anniversary of such date shall be delayed and not paid to you until the first business day following such sixth-month anniversary date, at which time such delayed amounts will be paid to you in a cash lump sum (the “Catch-up Amount”). If payment of an amount is delayed as a result of this Section 10, such amount shall be increased with interest from the date on which such amount would otherwise have been paid to you but for this Section 10 to the day prior to the date the Catch-up Amount is paid. The rate of interest shall be the applicable short-term federal rate applicable under Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code for the month in which occurs your Date of Termination. Such interest shall be paid at the same time that the Catch-up Amount is paid. If you die on or after your Date of Termination and prior to the sixth-month anniversary of such date, any amount delayed pursuant to this Section 10 shall be paid to your estate or beneficiary, as applicable, together with interest, within 30 days following the date of your death. The provisions of this Section 10 shall apply notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement related to the timing of payments following your Date of Termination.

To the extent a payment under this Agreement is not made within the short-term deferral period or another permitted exemption or exception from application of Code Section 409A, payments under this Agreement are intended to comply, and this Agreement shall be interpreted as necessary to comply, with Code Section 409A and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Any provision of this Agreement that cannot be so interpreted or applied consistent with Code Section 409A is deemed amended to comply with Code Section 409A or, if such amendment is not possible, is void.

In the event you become entitled to indemnification for any Losses or other expenses, costs, fees or in-kind benefits under Section 3 of this Agreement and such Losses, expenses, costs, fees or in-kind benefits are not exempt from Code Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § (b)(9)(v) because such Losses, expenses, costs, fees or in-kind benefits were not incurred or provided by the last day of the second taxable year following your Involuntary Termination, then the Company will satisfy any such right to indemnification by reimbursement or providing in-kind benefits in accordance with Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv) as follows:

- (i) Reimbursement or in-kind benefits may be paid or provided during the period of your lifetime;
- (ii) Reimbursement of an eligible expense will be made on or before the last day of your taxable year following the taxable year in which the expenses were incurred;
- (iii) The amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits provided, during a taxable year may not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits to be provided, in any other taxable year; and
- (iv) The right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits is not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

For purposes of Section 10 of this Agreement, the term “in-kind benefits” refers to services provided to you or on your behalf by the Company, such as legal or accounting services.”

11. Miscellaneous.

(a) Amendments, Waivers, Etc. No provision of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such waiver, modification or discharge is agreed to in a writing signed by you and the Company. No waiver by either party hereto at any time of any breach by the other party hereto of, or compliance with, any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time. No agreements or representations, oral or otherwise, express or implied, with respect to the subject matter hereof have been made by either party which are not expressly set forth in this Agreement and this Agreement shall supersede all prior agreements, negotiations, correspondence, undertakings and communications of the parties, oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided, however, that, except as expressly set forth herein, this Agreement shall not supersede the terms of Long-Term Plans and applicable award documents thereunder.

(b) Validity. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect.

(c) Severability. In the event that any provision or term of this Agreement is held to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision or term shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, without invalidating the remaining provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

(d) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

(e) No Contract of Employment. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as giving you any right to be retained in the employ of the Company or shall affect the terms and conditions of your employment with the Company prior to the commencement of the Term hereof or, if your employment with the Company continues after the Term, following the expiration of the Term.

(f) Withholding. Amounts paid to you hereunder shall be subject to all applicable federal, state and local withholding taxes.

(g) Source of Payments. All payments provided under this Agreement, other than payments made pursuant to a plan which provides otherwise, shall be paid in cash from the general funds of the Company, and no special or separate fund shall be established, and no other segregation of assets made, to assure payment. You will have no right, title or interest whatsoever in or to any investments which the Company may make to aid it in meeting its obligations hereunder. To the extent that any person acquires a right to receive payments from the Company hereunder, such right shall be no greater than the right of an unsecured creditor of the Company.

(h) Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, construction, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia applicable to contracts entered into and performed in such Commonwealth.

If this letter sets forth our agreement on the subject matter hereof, kindly sign and return to the Company the enclosed copy of this letter which will then constitute our agreement on this subject.

Sincerely,
