Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 10, 2015, Scott A. Neitzel, a Senior Vice President of Madison Gas and Electric Company (the "Company"), informed the Company that he would be resigning, effective February 13, 2015 ("Resignation Date").

At the time of Mr. Neitzel's Resignation Date, he will hold four outstanding awards under the MGE Energy, Inc. 2006 Performance Unit Plan. Two of those awards are unvested and will be forfeited on the Resignation Date in accordance with their terms. The remaining two awards are partially vested. The Company amended the partially vested awards to fix the settlement value of the vested portion of those awards based upon the value of those awards on the Resignation Date. The settlement amount will be payable upon the settlement dates originally established under those awards, which dates have not been changed. The Company also entered into an agreement with Mr. Neitzel in which he agreed to several post-employment agreements, including agreements not to compete with the Company, not to solicit its employees to leave their employment, and to maintain the confidential nature of the Company's confidential information. In exchange for those agreements, the Company paid Mr. Neitzel $200,000. The Company has the right to reclaim a declining portion of that $200,000 payment in the event that Mr. Neitzel breaches any of those agreements prior to the fourth anniversary of his Resignation Date.
